AGENDA

STRATEGIC EXECUTION:

Every day, you're judged by your capacity to manage projects, priorities and deadlines.

Your ability to execute plans and projects effectively and on time is critical to your success. This important module is about control - learning how to control yourself, your time and your reactions to events beyond your control. You will develop the skills that will help you get the best results in the least amount of time, juggle priorities with greater ease, thus affording you the opportunity to make greater headway on your exigencies. You will acquire the ability to adjust to shifting demands in a more professional and self-confident manner, thereby creating greater feelings of satisfaction and accomplishment.

MANAGING CONFLICT, STRESS AND NEGATIVE EMOTIONS IN THE WORKPLACE

The Banff Management Course will improve your understanding of how human behaviour can affect the functioning of an organization. Unquestionably, the pressure of doing more with fewer resources and tighter timelines will only intensify over the next decade. At this important session you will come to recognize the sources, symptoms and effects of stress and will develop strategies for effectively preventing, reducing, and managing it. You will lessen relationship stress by learning how to dramatically enhance your ability to deal more effectively with different and sometimes difficult people. This module will also arm you with the skills needed to maintain emotional control at work - and to survive the negative emotions of others.

MEMORY FOR MANAGEMENT

To master your memory is to invite success in business, in education and in your relationships. A trained memory is an absolute necessity in today's competitive work environment. In your business or professional life as well as in your social life, the ability to remember names and faces, appointments, numerical data and what you read is of immeasurable importance. Past participants say that learning how to deliver speeches and presentations without the need for notes was in itself well worth the cost of this seminar.

IMPROVING MANAGERIAL EFFECTIVENESS

To be a highly effective manager today, you must be a strategist, a communicator, a coach, a mediator, a diplomat and a politician! To experience sustained and enduring success you must continuously improve and renew your capabilities. You must know how to engage, collaborate with, and lead others. In this important module you will learn how to resolve team conflicts using emotionally intelligent approaches to get more from your team by adapting your management style to every situation. You will learn how to motivate every member of your team - even when they don't share your values. You will discover how to conduct effective interviews using positive and corrective feedback to turn problem employees around. Whether you're new to management or working to enhance your effectiveness as a manager, the Banff Management Course will help you elevate your game, engaging others to achieve the results you seek.

INFLUENCE: GETTING RESULTS - EVEN WHEN YOU ARE NOT IN CHARGE

Whether you're interacting with colleagues, subordinates or senior management; gaining respect and cultivating influence are absolutely essential to your success. You need to communicate your ideas persuasively to senior management, influence your colleagues to support your proposals and convince your team to, "buy in." You must know how to analyze your audience and frame your messages in ways that make others feel connected to you. At this session you will discover the seven essential influence strategies and discover which is most appropriate to each communication event.

SKILLFULLY INFLUENCING OTHERS, EFFECTIVELY MANAGING SELF

THE DOUGLAS DIFFERENCE: With professional development budgets stretched tightly today, it is important that you obtain the best training available. For more than twenty-eight years, the Banff Management Course has been recognized as Canada's gold standard in leadership and management development.

1. Canada's Most Comprehensive and Longest Running Leadership and Management Development Program

For more than forty years, we have worked closely with HR departments, managers and other stakeholders to ensure that our courses meet and exceed the rigorous needs of our participants. It is from this extensive experience that we have crafted our programs. The praise the Banff Management Course has received reflects the persistent research and subsequent revision which ensures that the program is at the cutting edge.

2. Highly Qualified Faculty

We use the Canadian university standard. All of our courses are taught by academically qualified faculty - not scripted presenters. Knowledgeable and entertaining speakers, our faculty members hold at least a Master's Degree from a fully accredited university and one or more professional qualifications, (Ph.D., CMC, PMP, etc.). Our team members also have on average 15 years' experience providing professional development training with P.A. Douglas & Associates.

3. First-Class Accommodation Included:

One of the greatest benefits of attending a truly limited enrollment residential program comes from the networking and camaraderie that takes place outside of the educational sessions. It is for this reason that, unlike other courses, where participants must arrange their own accommodation, at this seminar we provide and include your hotel accommodation so that everyone is under the same roof. For more information including meals, networking breakfasts, etc. please visit the website for this program: www.banffcourse.com.

4. A Truly Limited Enrollment Seminar:

This is NOT a conference in which you will be crammed into a ballroom with hundreds of others to listen to a keynote speaker and a bevy of motivational speakers. The Banff Management Course is a content-rich, practical educational experience in which the communication is "two-way" and real, concrete skills are taught. Your time is valuable, therefore rather than endless group discussions, you will leave this carefully tailored program with NEW practical skills that will immediately enhance your management, organizational and interpersonal skills.

5. Uniquely Canadian Content:

This course recognizes the real differences that exist in our Canadian corporate culture, our public sector and the unique impact and contribution of First Nations on our organizations and the roles we play within them. This course is diverse and inclusive. Our courseware, cases and faculty are proudly Canadian.

And you'll be in good company...
